

Rowantree Primary School

Newsletter 2 November 2019

We have been at school now for almost three weeks and it has been a very busy and extremely positive start to the term.

I wanted to share with you some important dates between now and the Christmas break. I would like to draw your attention to the addition In-service day for school staff on Thursday 12th December, this is due to the school being closed to pupils because of the General Election.

More details about our Christmas activities will be sent out in due course
